'Personality Plus' Session Will Feature Hair Styling

A visit to the Magic Mirror Room in Long Beach is scheduled for next Monday evening's session of "Personality Plus." The art of hair styling is the topic for the evening. Members of the staff of Dale Scott's Beauty Salon will demonstrate the principles involved, using several members of the Torrance group as models. The lecture demonstration will begin at 7:30 and last two hours. Cars will leave Torrance from the Central Guild hall at Arlington and Mareline at about 8:45 p.m.

Persons who would like to go and those who can drive and take passengers are asked to notify the YWCA office before noon Monday. Those who are interested and are not enrolled in "Personality Plus" may pay a single session fee of 25 cents. The fee for the entire series is 80 cents.

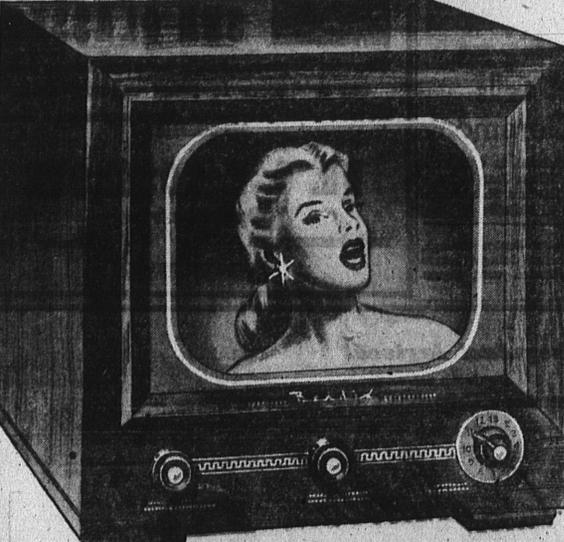

On Thursday evening, July 27, members of the class will stage a fashion show with the cooperation of Paul Diamond and his assistants from the Gas Shop. This event will be open to the public without charge.

On Monday evening July 3, Miss Virginia Barnelle will conclude the series with a discussion on "Getting along with people."

"Personality Plus" is part of the summer program of the Torrance YWCA.

Auxiliary Hears of Citations

A convention report given at the last meeting of the YWCA Auxiliary to Post 9851 revealed that the local unit received two citations at convention, one for hospital work, one for foundation. The unit earlier this year received a "home fund" citation.

Auxiliary members will meet in YWCA Clubhouse this morning and every Thursday for a sewing session.

Next regular meeting is scheduled for Monday evening, July 24.

Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Derouin and sons, Dal, Pat and Mike, spent last weekend at Balboa.

PTA Names New Health Chairman

Walteria School was the setting for the July board meeting of Walteria PTA last Thursday when Mrs. E. T. Laughlin presided in the absence of Mrs. R. T. McNulty. Mrs. Robert Ziske read the minutes of the June 15 meeting.

Mrs. P. J. Howey was appointed as health chairman to replace Mrs. Carl Cramer, who has resigned, according to Mrs. Walter Wild, publicity chairman.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Johnson of 1404 Engracia avenue visited relatives in Redlands during the weekend.

Y Committee Compliments Mrs. Kent

An ice cream social in the patio of the San Pedro YWCA supplied the setting Wednesday evening for the only meeting of the summer of the Torrance YWCA Committee. This was the first meeting presided over by the new chairman, Mrs. Leonard Stamps. Mrs. Marvin Kent, retiring chairman, was thanked by the committee members for her very able services while chairman and was given as token of appreciation an additional year's membership in the YWCA.

Persons attending the meeting from Torrance included, in addition to Mrs. Stamps and Mrs. Kent, Mrs. Minnie Solomon, Mrs. Mary Ulmer, Miss Esther Maxwell and Mrs. Charlotte Lukes of the "Y" committee and visitors Mrs. Edith Ingham, Mrs. Amelia Bell, Mrs. Zada Ramsey and Miss Barbara Shanahan.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Staver attended the races at Hollywood Park Friday, where they were clubhouse luncheon guests. In the evening they were entertained at dinner at the Los Angeles home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Grande.

NANCE PUPILS RECEIVE HONORS, CERTIFICATES

Colette Nance gave a recital Saturday evening for a group of her intermediate and advanced pupils at the home of Doctor and Mrs. Harold L. Snow in Rolling Hills.

Students appearing on the program were: Lynne MacRae, Dana Tenny, Sandra Snow, Judy Clark, Kathie Curtiss, Adele Ann Curtiss, Carol Dee Campbell, Janet Poh and Patricia Clere.

Grace Ann Lafferty, talented young soprano, pupil of Andres de Segurrola, delighted the audience with a charming group of songs.

At the close of the program, Mrs. Nance presented the district winners in the National Piano Playing Contest with their certificates. Pupils receiving high honors and certificates were: Lynn McRae, Dana Tenny, Kathie Curtiss, Adele Ann Curtiss, Janet Poh, Carol Dee Campbell, Patricia Clere and Anita Menni.
